

PLANNING BOARD REVERSES URBAN RENEWAL VOTE

Reversing a vote of two weeks ago the Wilmington Planning Board, unanimously, Tuesday night, endorsed Urban Renewal in Wilmington Square 'under any elected authority'.

The vote came only after an hour of confused debate and some pandemonium, while the Board considered a motion of Robert Evans.

Evans had, in his motion said 'elected authority', which most of the members understood to mean an Urban Renewal Authority, and not the Wilmington Housing Authority.

Each of the members spoke on this premise before the misunderstanding was cleared up.

Statements made while the Board thought that Evans meant 'Urban Renewal Authority,' (to be appointed by Selectmen, and subsequently to be elected next March) included:

Daniel Gillis: I opposed in the beginning in this Planning Board because I felt that the people in the Square would be forced out of business. Now we have to sell this for the Wilmington Housing Authority. As I see it, our old timers in town may have become too accustomed to the Square, and we are not fighting hard enough to clean it up. I go along but I still want a fighting chance for the businessman.

Joe Slater: Urban Renewal is really needed, as the Planning Board we have to approve, but it is up to the people to consider and vote.

Chairman Bill Beers: I oppose this motion strongly because it won't accomplish a thing except publicity through the newspaper. If the Wilmington Housing Authority won't give in - if they refuse to relinquish - if it (the articles in the warrant) cannot be amended - then you are voting to kill Urban Renewal. It can not be accomplished under law unless the Wilmington Housing Authority gives in and lets a Urban Renewal Authority be appointed. Any other way it is lost.

It was at this point that Evans explained by 'elected board' he meant an Urban Renewal Authority.

Evans' explanation led to a scene of pandemonium, with all six members of the Planning Board talking at once for quite a while. After the chair man had restored order he then said: Let's face facts. If the Housing Authority won't give way will the Planning Board support the article as written?

Herb Nickerson amended the original motion by Evans, to read that 'The Planning Board goes on record to be in favor of Urban Renewal'.

Ray Fitzmaurice: If we vote for this we can have a speech prepared to discuss some of the points.

Nickerson: If Wilmington does not go along with Urban Renewal the town is going to be in sad shape.

Gillis: When the Planning Board originally proposed Urban Renewal I was the member who opposed it. I opposed it because I was concerned about the businessman.

If you start throwing gimmicks into this now you are killing it. At the last Town Meeting (last spring,) we had a Selectman who dammed this all over the place. I will be very happy if the Board goes along with this motion. We have analyzed this problem personally. I go along.

Evans: Urban Renewal, and Urban Renewal alone can deal with the problems in Wilmington Square. Only Urban Renewal can deal with the two menaces: the peat bog and the Boston & Maine Railroad.

The vote was called for, and only Ayes were heard.

The chairman asked: Is it unanimous?

Joe Slater: My personal belief is that this board should be approving land usage and land usage only.

and in part of Hathaway Acres. Street lights were out all over town, with a few exceptions, and Reading Municipal Light maintainancemen worked several days replacing wires.

The telephone company reported a total of 299 telephones out of order for the entire Lowell area. 13 cable breaks caused the trouble for 220 of their subscribers.

The company noticed a 20% increase in long distance calls during the progress of the hurricane.

Jonathan Street of Parker St. while driving down Main St. found himself blown into the Wilmington Ford Sales yard. His car smashed into four new cars which were damaged considerably. He suffered lacerations of the knee, and severe back injuries, and is under the care of Dr. Gerald Fagan.

Civil Defense started at 4 am Monday, and worked through 9 pm. The Highway Department worked until midnight, and the Tree Department all night.

Most Town Hall employees were released at 1 pm., the exceptions being the TM's secretary and the Public Health Nurse.

THE LADY HAD A SENSE OF HUMOR

Good humor invaded the Wilmington Planning Board meeting Tuesday night, when a Mrs. Virginia Silk appeared in company with Louis Morlani, of Cunningham Street, to discuss some land in that area.

Each week the Planning Board has to explain that they cannot sign certain plans because they do not conform with the law. It is generally a tedious operation.

This time was different. Mrs. Silk displayed a wonderful sense of humor, and kept everyone laughing - even though the Planning Board had to turn down her proposals.

She wanted to divide a piece of land of nearly four acres to which access could be had only by two routes, one through a 50 foot wide lot and the other through a 25 foot driveway. She took their statements in good nature, even when they told her that if she went to the Board of Appeals they might feel it their duty to appear and oppose her.

Her remark, as she left the meeting: 'The way I feel right now, if I was to throw myself into the Merrimack River it would throw me right out again - PING!'

FAIRMEADOW ROAD - NICHOLS ST RESIDENTS TO SEEK INFO ON PROPOSED ROAD

A delegation of the residents from the Fairmeadow Road - Nichols Street area are to attend the School Committee meeting next Wednesday to seek information about a proposed road from Nichols Street to Lake Street, on the east side of the B&M tracks.

The road was proposed by a Planning Consultant hired by the Wilmington Planning Board, and the proposal was incorporated in the 'General Plan', proposals made to the people of Wilmington in 1957, and subsequently included in the

INDUSTRY SWINGS BEHIND URBAN RENEWAL

J. W. GREER COMPANY URGES IMMEDIATE APPROVAL OF THE URBAN RENEWAL PLAN FOR WILMINGTON

Don S. Greer, President of J. W. Greer Company in Wilmington today urged the Town government and citizens of Wilmington to expend every effort to accomplish the outstanding need here - that of urban renewal.

In Mr. Greer's statement, he cited the urgent need for property improvement and expanded commercial facilities in the center of Wilmington. A town, he said, which has grown so rapidly in the past few years and which is destined to become a manufacturing and research center north of Boston, should by all means be able to take pride in its shopping center and transportation facilities.

Industry in general in the Town of Wilmington wholeheartedly supports the urban renewal proposals under discussion, Mr Greer said. In a personal survey of local industries, Mr Greer noted that Avco, Raffi & Swanson, and National Polychemicals were among the many industrial firms in Wilmington supporting urban renewal.

EYE TO EYE WITH THE ELEPHANT

Edward Uehlein of Newton, a candidate for nomination as County Commissioner, just loves elephants, as a Republican. He hanned it up for the camera, last Saturday, at the Wilmington Town Republican Cookout, on the J W Greer grounds. 275 guests took part in the cookout.

STATE LAW PUTS CRIMP IN DRIVER-ED CLASSES

A new state law has forced a change in the Driver Education classes of the Wilmington Evening Practical Arts School.

Adults who will be registering next Tuesday and Thursday evenings (7 to 9 pm) at the High School, will be told that only pupils who are 25 years old, or younger, may take the complete course, including Behind the Wheel Training.

Public Schools are now forbidden to give behind the wheel training to pupils over 25.

The course will be $20 for those who take the complete course. A partial course, offering theory and class-room instruction, will be offered to those who are over 25 years old, but the charge for this course has not yet been determined.

The purpose of this meeting is to acquaint interested women with the aims and programs of the League on the national, state and local level. It is hoped to start a League in Wilmington in the near future.

This year we are planning to have meetings in Wilmington on foreign policy, state civil service, and public higher education.

Anyone desiring further information may call Mrs Henry Sullivan, membership chairman, at OL 8-4394.

EDITH NOURSE ROGERS

Edith Nourse Rogers, who passed on last Saturday, was for 35 years the personification of Middlesex County, in the halls of Congress.

She served consecutively for 18 terms, longer than any other woman. Only nine men have ever served a longer term.

Her long service is the best testimony of her value. A worker for the Red Cross overseas in World War I, a Dollar-a-Year inspector of Veterans Hospitals under presidents Harding, Coolidge, and Hoover, she was the friend of the men in the service, and his family.

She was one of the first to denounce Adolf Hitler for his racial views. She was the person who, more than anyone else, introduced the Women's Army Corps into Congress. She was the holder of the American Legion Distinguished Service Medal. Many more things can be said of this remarkable woman who rose above party distinctions to serve all.

But it was her unflinching service to the people of this congressional district that endeared her to the voters.

For her heart was with the people and her death is felt keenly, in every home of Wilmington and the Fifth Congressional District.

This is her benediction.

THE $64 QUESTION

Town Moderator Simon Cutter will undoubtedly have to make a ruling, next Monday, in the adjourned Town Meeting, on whether or not an amendment can be made to the Urban Renewal article.

At least that is how it seems as this moment, for the big fight in Wilmington is whether or not the Housing Authority should conduct the Urban Renewal project - if it is voted

As it was originally proposed, by the Selectmen and Planning Board, the Urban Renewal project was to be in the hands of an Urban Renewal Authority, elected by the people. But first, under the law of those days, the Housing Authority had to voluntarily step aside, and in this case they didn't volunteer.

It is past history, and not too much can be gained by wrangling over past history, but the wrangling, it seems almost certain will be renewed on the floor of the Town Meeting, next Monday.

The big question is "can an amendment be made that can substitute an Urban Renewal Authority for the Housing Authority?"

We don't profess to know the answer. Some of our parliamentary friends say no, and others say yes.

Then there is a second question - and a third, and so on. But Si Cutter is going to have to rule on the first, anyway, or so it would seem.

(Incidentally, we made an error last week, in discussing the possibilities on the vote on re-zoning. We said that it would require a two-thirds vote, to re-zone. We are told that it isn't so - a two thirds vote is required to originally pass a Zoning By-Law, but amendments to the by law are by majority vote.

So the Two-Thirds question will come up at the time that the money is voted, by bonding, and a no other time.

THE LATE BOUTWELL ST SCHOOL

others are upset because the Boutwell Street

TOCCI SUBDIVISION TO BE LIMITED TO TWO YEARS has written to Edsel Tocci, real estate developer who is planning a sub-division between Woburn and West Streets and told him that he will

Two lots of land in the proposed sub-division have been reserved, by the Planning Board, for park purposes.

In a similar letter, to A. P.
Rounds of Stoneham, developer of Hathaway Acres, the Planning Board told him that he will have to reserve four lots for parks, in a proposed extension of Hathaway Acres.

PLANNING BOARD'S 'SIGN A WEEK' CLUB BACK IN FULL SWING

The Wilmington Planning Board after a summer of relative inactivity, came back into full swing in their 'Sign a Week' club, in last Tuesday's meeting.

Not one, but three signs were the subject of their discussions.

In the first instance, a flashing light sign, on Main Street seems to be soon the scene of legal action. The acting Building Inspector, Town Engineer Alphonse Savignac, reported that he had turned over to Town Counsel Philip Buzzell, on the request of the TM, papers leading to legal action on the part of the town.

In the second instance, a sign which was erected on Main Street, closer than the law allows was under discussion. It seemed that the owner had not been, or reported he had not been notified of the decision of the Board of Appeals, with respect to the sign.

The Planning Board voted to notify the Selectmen, as the board responsible for the appointment of Appeal Board members, of the seeming inaction.

Also discussed was a smaller 'sandwich' sign which appears frequently, still closer to the street.

The Planning Board members were most unhappy about the sign, and instructed the acting Town Building Inspector to have it removed, with haste -- or else.

The third sign was a similar 'sandwich' sign which frequently appears near the other, but for a different establishment. This too is to be subjected to the 'remove it or else' treatment.

now with the School Building Committee, going over the question, and it seems that there will be more of them at the meeting tonight.

From what we have read in the Boston newspapers Wilmington has a great deal of company in this regard. Other cities and towns have their schools completed, but not on time. So does Wilmington. In fact, not one town building in the past decade has been completed on its date.

The original High School was late. It's last addition missed by half a year. The Wildwood School was delayed, and the delay compounded by the roof blowing off in a hurricane. The Glen Road School suffered delays in Town Meeting and in the steel strike, which strike delayed the Town Garage, and added to the cost of that structure, and the police station. The Housing for the Elderly missed the deadline.

Those who are attending the School Building Committee sessions seek to have that committee impose a penalty on the contractor, when he is at fault. They and others seek to know why there is no legal remedy that will either penalize him until it hurts or which will force him to speed up.

The towns and cities don't have much choice, we are told, if a contractor does not finish in a specified time. If a contractor doesn't finish, he has breached his contract, but if a town steps in because the contract is breached then everything must be advertised again, and new contracts let - a several months delay, which could be worse than the original case.

If towns and cities include a penalty clause as has been suggested then all the contractors jump their prices, to cover such an event, and still don't worry. They don't lose anything, and if they finish ahead of time it just costs the town a lot more money, i.e. both the penalty money and a bonus.

The penalty clauses, our lawyer friends say, are practically unenforceable.

They point to the Housing for the Elderly as an example. There was a penalty clause there, but still the contractor was late, and nothing was done about it.

EX-WILMINGTONITES IN FLORIDA WERE UNINJURED BY DONNA

No former residents of Wilmington, now living in Florida seem to have been injured in the recent hurricane, a survey by the Town Crier reveals.

Mr and Mrs Norman Perry of St Petersburg have telephoned to Mrs Perry's sister, Alice Bischoff of Burlington Ave to say that they are uninjured.

Mrs Peter Neilson, and Miss Sylvia Neilson, formerly of Glen Road, went through the brunt of the storm, at Plant City Florida.

They were without electricity for some time, and the water level was within one inch of their dinningroom floor, but their home is otherwise undamaged.

John F. Hammond, son of Mr and Mrs John Hammond of King St, living near Miami, escaped injury, as did Mrs. James F. Davis, the former Sylvia Corneillussen, daughter of Mr and Mrs William Corneillussen of Main Street, Silver Lake.

Charles F. Walsh, USCG, son of Mr and Mrs Charles Walsh of Aldrich Road was not exposed to the storm. He is stationed near Palm Beach.

Mr and Mrs Leo Van Steensburg and Mr and Mrs Lloyd Wicks, of Green Cove Spring have reported that while the winds were up to 75 miles an hour there was no real damage.

Mr and Mrs Clarence Sweetser, formerly of Aldrich Road, now of Englewood, Florida, are vacationing with her sister, Mrs John Parsons of Boutwell St. and do not expect to return to Florida until mid October.

HOUSING AUTHORITY REFUSES TO STEP ASIDE FOR URBAN DEVELOPMENT BOARD

The Wilmington Housing Authority, last Thursday night, refused to step aside, for an Urban Renewal Development authority in Wilmington.

WHA member James Donahue moved, after a long discussion that the Authority step aside, and his motion was not seconded by any of those present. Present at the time were Chairman William Agreeable Smith, Mrs Kasabuski, and Mr. Sullivan.

During the reading of the minutes of a previous meeting in August it developed that Mrs Kasabuski had made a motion at that time for the WHA to sell 6 of the houses at the Veterans Project, on Wildwood Street.

Her motion was not seconded.

CARD OF THANKS

The Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 2458 of Wilmington extends its thanks to the many people who assisted in their Annual Block Dance.

The Block Dance is given each Labor Day as a Public Service by the Conrades of the Nee-Ellsworth Post as a recreational event for the children of Wilmington. The past two years have shown how well it has been received.

Our special thanks goes to Mike Weinberg for his generosity and cooperation.

The committee consisted of Philip Le Duc, Bill Simmons, John Faulkner, George McGondel, and Charles McCann. The workers were Paul Farrell, Eugene Eldridge, Tom O'Connor, Charles Ellis and Arthur Starr.

The winners of prizes were Frank Griffin of Kirk Street and Frank Ducette of Shady Lane, Wilmington.

PLANNING BOARD VOTES TO EXTEND BOND FOR HERSON

The Planning Board, Tuesday night, voted to extend a bond on a real estate development off Burlington Avenue (Roberts Estates) being built by Roy Herson of Burlington Avenue.

In accordance with their vote of several weeks ago for 'tough' regulations, the Planning Board had voted that if Mr. Herson were to request an extension he should be told he would have to bond the entire project.

This, Herson told the Board Tuesday night, would require a $44,000 bond on his part, and that this would require even more cash, for collateral and expenses.

Herson told the board that in a letter dated Feb. 9, 1959 he had been told that he could extend his development 'piece-meal' and that this was what he still wanted to do.

After some debate the Board voted to extend the present bond to cover three more house lots, but then added that the last half of the development must be taken as one piece.

The Chairman, at the time of the vote declared that Herson was still 'The best builder in Wilmington'.

PLANNING BOARD TABLES
SIGNING PLAN APPROVED
BY APPEAL BOARD

A plan, on which a variance was granted by the Board of Appeals on August 25th was tabled for later action by the Planning Board, Tuesday night. The board declared that it would not act on the plan until it had a written report from the Appeal Board, and hinted vaguely that it might oppose the Appeal Board's action in court.

The land in question is off Shawsheen Avenue, on Amherst Street and is the property of Al Salera. It was formerly owned by another man, and was subject to an appeal before the Board of Appeals at that time, with the Planning Board in strong opposition. The Planning Board was afraid that the Appeal Board action had closed off a lot of land so that there would be no access from the street.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH NEWS
Church School registration will take place on Sept. 18th in both the upper and lower parish house, at 9:30 a.m. Worship service will be held at 11:00 a.m. with the Rev. Robert E. Sanders preaching and Kenneth G. Kelley, organist and choir master, directing the choir.

Sunday, Sept. 25th will be the first date for the duplicate sessions of church school and worship service, at 9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

Homer S. Richards, a former Wilmington resident, has returned to his home town and is the newly appointed superintendent of the church school. Mr. Richards has been conferring with his department heads and supervisors to prepare for the re-opening of classes.

To provide an opportunity for parishioners to inspect the remodeling of church facilities which was accomplished during the summer, an 'Open House' will be held in the church on Sept. 25th at 3:00 p.m. At 5:00 p.m. on this same date, the Senior Pilgrim Fellowship will hold a cook-out at the home of Mrs. Roland Deming on Federal St.

Meetings scheduled for next week are: Monday, 19th, East Branch; Tuesday, 20th, L.B.S. tea, to which all the ladies of the parish are invited; Wednesday, 21st, P.C.C. meeting at 10:00 a.m. in the upper parish house; Thursday, 22nd, Christian Education Comm., at 8:00 p.m. in the upper parish house.

In answer to the many inquiries for further information on the proposed church bike trip, Saturday, Sept. 17, Mr. Sanders has prepared this statement. The Congregational Family Picnic on Bikes will be held this Saturday, September 17th, from 10 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Bikers will meet at the church with sack lunch, light colored clothes, (bright cap if possible), and bike in good condition. We will make this first ride a short one, no more than five miles one way - then lunch - then five miles back. The church will provide good supervision; we will not travel on heavily trafficked roads but parents must assume major responsibility. We hope you come in family groups! Youngsters unaccompanied by at least one parent, must be 12 years old! You are welcome to bring a friend from any church provided the friend is at least 12 or you have one parent with you.

PUBLIC WORSHIP AND CHURCH SCHOOL AT WILMINGTON METHODIST CHURCH

Two services of public worship will be held in the Wilmington Methodist Church beginning Sunday, Sept. 18 at 9 a.m. and 10:45 a.m. The Rev. Richard E. Harding, pastor, will preach on the subject, 'What Are We Looking For?' At the early service the youth choir under the direction of Mrs. James Todd will provide special music with Mrs. Raymond Gardner as organist.

The church school will reopen for its fall program with two entire sessions of the school from the nursery through the eighth grade one at 9 and the other at 10:45 a.m. Those families who did not register their children last Sunday will register them this week. The High School class, ninth through twelfth grade will begin its session at a later date. At the 9 a.m. hour the Adult Bible Class will meet in the pastor's study with the Rev. Herbert E. Coontz leading a study of the Gospel of John. Parents seeking further information concerning the school will call Church School Superintendent, Mrs. Paul Bodenstein, 8-4937.

STEVENS - VARLEY NUPTIALS

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Varley, as they left St. Thomas Church last Saturday morning, after their wedding. With the couple is her uncle, Edward J. Stevens, Boston bank examiner.

In an 11 am Nuptial Mass, at St. Thomas Church, on Sept. 10 Miss Jane Patricia Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Crowley of Longview Road became the bride of Mr. Herbert Varley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Varley of Hayward Road Acton, and formerly of Wilmington.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a bridal gown of pearl satin, fashioned in princess lines, with a scoop neckline. The gown was embroidered with Alencon lace, and long tapered sleeves reached to the fingertips. The bouffant skirt was trimmed with matching lace, and terminated in a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of imported silk was held by a coronet of pearls. She carried a white prayer book, with a white orchid, and trailing Stephanotis.

The Rev. Father Edmund Croke performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Estelle Shelley was the organist, and Mrs. Clair Syiek of North Wilmington the soloist. Music during the ceremony included Mother at Thy Feet is Kneeling, by the Sisters of Notre Dame, and Oh Lord I am not Worthy.

The Matron of Honor was Mrs. Ethel Rogers of Ipswich, a sister of the Bride, and the Bridesmaids were Mrs. Armand Bergeron of Nashua, NH., Miss Phyllis Miles of Andover and Miss Marie Varley of Acton, a sister of the groom.

They wore matching gowns of ballerina length, made of peau satin, fashioned with scoop necklines, elbow length sleeves, and with bouffant gathered skirts. The Matron of Honor was in gold, and the bridesmaids in coral.

The best man was Mr. Armand Bergeron of Nashua NH, a classmate of Mr. Varley's at the Lowell Technological Institute and the ushers were Mr Joseph Rogers, a brother in law of the groom, Lt Conrad Metcalf USN, also a classmate at Lowell Tech, and Mr Paul Varley of Acton, brother of the groom.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Ship's Haven in Lynnfield. Mrs. Raymond Elliott of Northhampton was in charge of the guestbook and music was provided by the Norman White orchestra.

For her gown in the reception line, Mrs. Crowley chose one of royal blue silk, with matching hat and accessories, and wore an orchid corsage.

The mother of the groom chose a dress of beige satin with matching accessories, and also had an orchid corsage.

The honeymoon is being spent in Canada and at Niagara Falls. The new Mrs Varley chose for her going away costume a two piece suit of avacade, with matching hat and shoes, and wore a white orchid.

After their return the couple plan to live in Bedford.

The bride was educated in the Malden and Wilmington public schools and is a graduate of the Lowell General Hospital School of Nursing, Class of 1960. She is a member of the Massachusetts Nurses Association.

Her husband was educated in the Boston and Wilmington public schools, and graduated from the Lowell Technological Institute in 1958. He is a member of the Delta Kappa Phi fraternity, and is employed at the Bedford Air Base as an Electronics Engineer, by the Radio Corporation of America.
